

COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE
455 Golden Gate Avenue, Suite 14400
San Francisco, CA 94102

---

Contact: Victoria B. Henley
Director-Chief Counsel
(415) 557-1200

---

FOR RELEASE
February 27, 2012

JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION INSTITUTES FORMAL
PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING JUDGE SALVADOR SARMIENTO

The Commission on Judicial Performance has instituted formal proceedings to inquire into matters concerning Judge Salvador Sarmiento of the Orange County Superior Court. The commencement of formal proceedings is not a determination of judicial misconduct. The formal proceedings concern allegations that the judge sought preferential treatment from a court traffic commissioner in the handling of a traffic ticket issued to the judge's wife.

It is alleged that these actions constitute willful misconduct in office, conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into disrepute and improper action.

In accordance with the rules that govern Commission proceedings, a hearing will be conducted by Special Masters appointed by the Supreme Court. At the hearing, the parties will have an opportunity to introduce evidence and examine and cross-examine witnesses. Judge Sarmiento is represented by attorney Randall A. Miller, Esq., of Los Angeles, California.

Following completion of the hearing, the Special Masters will provide the Commission with a report containing findings with respect to the charges. The parties will have an opportunity to present their views on the report to the Commission through briefing and argument. If the Commission determines that the charges are proved by clear and convincing evidence, it is empowered to remove, censure, publicly admonish, or privately discipline the judge. Charges that the Commission determines are not proved will be dismissed. A determination by the Commission to remove, censure, or admonish a judge is subject to discretionary review by the Supreme Court upon petition by the judge.

The Notice of Formal Proceedings is available for public inspection at the Commission office. A copy of the Notice of Formal Proceedings is also posted on the Commission's website at www.cjp.ca.gov (under "Press Releases"). Judge Sarmiento's Answer to the Notice is due March 12, 2012. Upon filing, the judge's answer will be made available for public inspection.

The Commission is composed of three judges, two lawyers, and six public members. The Chairperson is the Hon. Judith D. McConnell of the Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, in San Diego, California. Commission member Hon. Frederick P. Horn is recused in this matter.

For further information about the Commission on Judicial Performance, see the Commission's website.